

Echelon Event Security Management and Crowd Control Solutions

1617 John F Kennedy Blvd #1575
19103
USA

Telefon: (610) 831-0277

At Echelon , we provide a wide range of security services and technology solutions to offer you the best deterrent and protection strategies based on your individual situation and needs. we offer competitive rates and the personal attention that is hard to find with large security agencies. We provide the best trained agents as well as supervisory, quality control, and technology leaders who remain directly involved in the day-to-day operations of your account. We provide each client with advice and suggestions tailored to his or her needs and unique risk scenario, putting preventative measures in place to ensure your best possible long or short-term security solutions. Whether you require our protection and surveillance services for a day or a decade, we will accommodate your security requests and challenges quickly and professionally. Echelon Protection & Surveillance provides exceptional Security Guard Services, Personal Protection and Private Investigation Solutions for your unique business or personal needs. Our experienced security professionals are trained and certified to protect your people and property in any situation by solving problems, de-escalating situations, gathering useful information and stopping unwanted or illegal activity.